

Bridge courses, 2015 – 2016

The courses listed below are designed for students at the L5 level who wish to polish their linguistic skills prior to further study in Spanish. A maximum of one course numbered SPAN 200 - 244 may be counted toward the major in Spanish, with permission of the Director of Undergraduate Studies in Spanish.

Fall 2015

SPAN 222: Legal Spanish. Instructor: Mercedes Carreras.
An introduction to Spanish and Latin American legal culture with a focus on the specific traits of legal language and on the development of advanced language competence.

SPAN 227: Creative Writing. Instructor: María Jordán.
An introduction to the craft and practice of creative writing (fiction, poetry, and essays).

SPAN 243: Advanced Grammar. Course Coordinator and Instructor: Terry Seymour.
A comprehensive, in -depth study of grammar intended to improve students' spoken and written command of Spanish

Spring 2016

SPAN 223: Spanish in Film. Instructor: Margherita Tortora.
Development of proficiency in Spanish through analysis of critically acclaimed Latin American films. Includes basic vocabulary of film criticism in Spanish as well as discussion and language exercises.

SPAN 225: Spanish for Medical Professions. Instructor: Mercedes Carreras.
Topics in health and welfare. Conversation, reading, and writing about medical issues for advanced Spanish - language students considering careers in medical professions.

SPAN 243: Advanced Grammar. Course Coordinator and Instructor: Terry Seymour.
A comprehensive, in - depth study of grammar intended to improve students' spoken and written command of Spanish.