THE SPANISH MAJOR

The major in Spanish is a liberal arts major that offers a wide range of courses in the language, literatures, and cultures of the twenty Spanish-speaking countries in Europe and Latin America. Today Spanish is the second language of the United States, one of the three most widely spoken languages in the world, and one of the five diplomatic languages of the United Nations.

The program in Spanish provides you with the opportunity to acquire thorough linguistic proficiency as well as in-depth knowledge of both cultural and literary topics. The Spanish major opens up a world of literature, history, art, philosophy and cultural studies, and is an excellent preparation for careers in diplomacy, law, medicine, business, the arts, academics, journalism, and education. Students interested in majoring in Spanish, or in a double major in Spanish and another field, should consult with the DUS about a specialized course of study.

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese at Yale is known not only for its academic rigor but also for its plurality of critical and theoretical approaches to the study of Peninsular and Latin American literatures. It boasts a world-renowned faculty whose research is considered among some of the most important being done in Hispanic literary studies today.

*For information on the major in Portuguese, consult with the DUS, Prof. K. David Jackson.

ADVANCED LANGUAGE CERTIFICATE IN SPANISH

For non-majors who have taken a collection of advanced courses in Spanish.

- Eligible: SPAN courses at the 200 or 300 level holding an L5 designation (taught entirely in Spanish).
- First-year seminars taught in Spanish count as courses in SPAN 231-299 range.
- At least one of the four required courses must be at the 300 level (an advanced undergraduate course or seminar). One advanced non-L5 course, conducted entirely in Spanish, such as an independent study course (may be graded pass/fail) or a graduate seminar, may count toward certification requirements (with approval of the DUS for Spanish).
- A maximum of one course may be taken abroad, as part of a Yale or Yale designated program.
- All courses must be taken for a letter grade. You must achieve a grade of B or above. Courses taken Credit/D/Fail will not be counted for the certificate. The DUS will review and approve all courses to be applied to the certificate.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE SPANISH MAJOR

Requirements for the Spanish Major

Prerequisite: SPAN 140, 142, 145, or equivalent.

Number of courses: 10 term courses beyond the prerequisite (including the senior essay requirement).

Specific requirements: You may take:

- ☞ a maximum of 1 course from SPAN 200-230
- ☞ 5 courses numbered SPAN 300 or higher
- ☞ a maximum of 1 SPAN course taught in English, with DUS approval

You must complete the senior essay (SPAN 491) in your final year.

* First-year seminars taught in Spanish count toward the major in the SPAN 231-99 range.

* Up to 4 approved courses taken abroad may count toward the major.

SUMMER STUDY ABROAD

Multiple programs combining Intensive Intermediate Spanish (SPAN 130/ SPAN 140) and a Culture course (SPAN 248 or 249) will be offered over the summer.

Programs length: 8 weeks

Weeks 1-4: Taught on the Yale campus in New Haven

Weeks 5-8: Bilbao, Spain or Quito, Ecuador

These intensive Spanish summer courses cover SPAN 130 and SPAN 140 in one term. You will be able to perform proficiently at an intermediate level. The Culture course explores the history, society, and culture of the target country through literary texts, essays, films, music, and visual arts. You will develop Spanish linguistic skills as you increase your understanding of the language and culture immersed in the target location. You will have the opportunity to go on excursions, visit museums, attend conferences, interact with popular culture, live with local families, and participate in many other activities. For information on L5-level summer courses abroad, as well as semester or full-year abroad programs, contact the Center for International and Professional Experience, or consult the DUS.
